The Nativity of Our Lord

December 25, 2023

Prayer before Worship:

Lord God, heavenly Father, we give thanks to You that of Your mercy and compassion You caused Your Son to become incarnate, and through Him redeemed us from sin and everlasting death: We beseech You, enlighten our hearts by Your Holy Spirit, that we may ever be thankful for such grace, and comfort ourselves thereby in all tribulation and temptation, and at last obtain eternal salvation; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one true God, now and forever. Amen.

CHRISTMAS DAY

Welcome! Two Christmases vie for our allegiance and attention: the Christmas of our society and the Christmas of the Church. For our society, Christmas is a time of nostalgia for the innocence of childhood and of yearning for a golden age. Underlying the cultural Christmas is an element of truth, but only imperfectly remembered and understood. The Christmas of faith also remembers a time of innocence: Eden and a world created in beauty and harmony.

The Church celebrates the mystery of salvation revealed in Christ's birth, more so than the birthday itself. Today we celebrate the mystery of God becoming man in Jesus who is both our King and our Savior.

THIS MORNING WE CELEBRATE THE LORD'S SUPPER. Today, our Lord, whose birth we celebrate, invites us to be guests at the Altar to celebrate the Lord's Supper. Here we receive the gift of forgiveness He purchased and won through His perfect life and His innocent suffering and death.

DIVINE SHEPHERD LUTHERAN CHURCH PRACTICES "CLOSED"

COMMUNION Luther once said, "Word and Sacrament are the manger and swaddling clothes into which it has pleased Christ to lay Himself". Just as the shepherds were told where to find Jesus then, so also we are told where to find Him still today. He is no longer in the humble manger; but by His own promise, He is in the humble means of bread and wine with His true body and blood. As we receive His gift, the greatest gift we can give to others is a loving witness to the truth of His Word. For this reason the congregations of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod have agreed to follow the Biblical and historical practice of "Closed Communion." If you desire to receive the Lord's Supper and are not a communicant member of Divine Shepherd, or a sister congregation in the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod we respectfully ask that you not commune this morning.

Rather, we would invite you to speak with Pastor Zimmer about Holy Communion and about becoming a communicant member of this congregation. It is the sincere prayer of this congregation that our careful practice of the administration of the Lord's Supper will not be a hindrance to our fellowship with you but instead that it would lead you to appreciate the high regard we have for Christ and His Word concerning this precious gift. We do invite those who are not a member of the LCMS to come to the altar for a blessing. If you would like a blessing, as you kneel at the altar, please cross your arms so that your right hand is on your left shoulder and left hand is on your right shoulder. God bless you for Your understanding!

Invocation

After the Bell is rung, the congregation rises and turns toward the Narthex. The attention of the congregation is directed to the Processional Cross.

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P In the name of the Father and of the  $\text{✠}$  Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 52:7–10

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news,
who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness,
who publishes salvation,
who says to Zion, "Your God reigns."

<sup>8</sup>The voice of your watchmen—they lift up their voice;
together they sing for joy;

for eye to eye they see the return of the Lord to Zion.

<sup>9</sup>Break forth together into singing,
you waste places of Jerusalem,
for the Lord has comforted his people;
he has redeemed Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>The Lord has bared his holy arm

before the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle Reading

Titus 3:4–7

When the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, <sup>5</sup>he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup>whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, <sup>7</sup>so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel

John 1:1-14

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 1st chapter.

C Glo - ry to You, O Lord.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

The Apostles Creed

☐ I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried.
He descended into hell.

The third day He rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.
From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Christian Church,
the communion of saints,
The forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life ✕ everlasting. Amen.
